Switzerland will host UEFA Women's EURO 2025 from 2 to 27 July 2025. The tournament will be held in eight cities (Zurich, Lucerne, Bern, Thun, Basel, Sion, St Gallen and Geneva). In preparation, Switzerland's cantonal police commanders have decided to carry out security screenings of several groups of people who will be occupied in the stadiums. Screening requires the consent of the individual concerned.

Based on Art. 34(4)(b) of the Swiss Federal Act on Data Protection of 1 September 2023 (FADP, SR 235.1) and applicable cantonal data protection laws, the signatory gives their express consent to background screening carried out using database enquiries and takes note of the following:

- Given my potential role at UEFA Women's EURO 2025, enquiries will be launched to determine whether there is an entry concerning me in the national police search system (RIPOL), the Schengen Information System (SIS), the Federal Intelligence Service (FIS) information systems or (in reference to criminal charges) a cantonal police system.
- My involvement can be refused on security grounds based on the results of such database enquiries.
- The conditions set out in Art. 20, 25, 26 and 34 of the FADP; Art. 16 and 19 of the Ordinance of 1 September 2023 on Data Protection (DPO, SR 235.11); Art. 13 of the Ordinance of 13 October 2016 on the automatic police search system (RIPOL Ordinance, SR 361.0); Art. 50 of the Ordinance on the national part of the Schengen Information System (N-SIS) and the SIRENE bureau (N-SIS Ordinance, SR 362.0) and Art. 63 of the Federal Act of 25 September 2015 on the Intelligence Service (IntelSA, SR 121) all apply.

Cantonal law and special legal provisions also remain reserved.
